08:30 – 09:10 Presentation 1: Marica Valente

09:10 – 09:50 Presentation 2: Tobias Wekhof

09:50 – 10:20 Coffee Break

10:20 – 11:00 Presentation 3: Joëlle Noailly

11:00 – 11:40 Presentation 4: Christin Hoffmann

11:40 – 13:20 Lunch and Poster Session 1

13:20 – 14:00 Presentation 5: Andreas Gerster

14:00 – 14:40 Presentation 6: Eva Deuchert

14:40 – 16:00 Coffee Break and Poster Session 2

16:00 – 17:00 Keynote Speaker 1: Hunt Allcott

17:00 – 17:10 Short Break

17:10 – 17:50 Presentation 7: Michelle Fioretti

17:50 – 18:30 Presentation 8: Ludovica Gazze

20:00 - Conference Dinner

Saturday, January 21

08:30 – 09:10 Presentation 9: Harald Mayr

09:10 – 09:50 Presentation 10: Claes Ek

09:50 – 10:20 Coffee Break

10:20 – 11:00 Presentation 11: Marcella Veronesi

11:00 – 11:40 Presentation 12: Petyo Bonev

11:40 – 13:30 Lunch and Poster Session 3

13:30 – 14:30 Keynote Speaker 2: Matthew Harding

14:30 – 15:10 Presentation 13: Alexander Pfaff

15:10 – 15:40 Coffee Break, Group Picture, and Change of Rooms

15:40 – 16:20 Presentation 14: Matthias Rodemeier

16:20 – 17:00 Presentation 15: Marine Coinon

17:00 – 17:10 Summary and Farewell

Evening Program: Drinks in the City (optional; participants pay their drinks)

EAERE

European Association of Environmental and
Resource Economists

Poster Sessions: details

Poster Session 1: Vanessa Da Cruz, Diego Castro-Amado, Nina Zachlod, Andrius Kažukauskas, Christian Hoenow, Kristin Limbach, Elsa Allman

Poster Session 2: Kathrin Kaestner, Johanna Arlinghaus, Abraham Lartey, Elena Benedetti, Florian Münch, Haleema Misal, Iva Zverinova, Katarzyna Zagórska

Poster Session 3: Damien Mayaux, Patrick Bigler, Camille Massié, Madeline Werthschulte, Bettine Chlond, Linde Kattenberg, Elena Villar

II. Participants (ordered alphabetically) and papers:

Hunt Allcott, Microsoft Research, allcott@gmail.com;
TBA (KEYNOTE SPEAKER)

Elsa Allman, Banque De France, elsa.allman@gmail.com;
“External Reviews and Green Bond Credibility”

Johanna Arlinghaus, Mercator Institute on Global Commons and Climate Change, arlinghaus@mcc-berlin.net;
“Tax and the city: The welfare impact of using second-best uniform taxes to address traffic congestion”

Elena Benedetti, Northumbria University, elena.benedetti@northumbria.ac.uk;

„The effect of EU Carbon Tariffs on the UK Food Trade Market and Emissions: A Micro-Simulation with a Structural Gravity Model“

Patrick Bigler, University of Bern, patrick.bigler@kpm.unibe.ch;

“Predicting Prosumers, Rebounds and Spillovers: The Case of Residential Photovoltaic Systems”

Petyo Bonev, University of St. Gallen, petyo.bonev@unisg.ch

“Behavioral Spillovers”

Diego Castro-Amado, University of East Anglia, d.castro-amado@uea.ac.uk;

“Are Drugs Policies Also Conservational Polices? A case study of the eradication of illicit crops in Colombia”

Bettina Larissa Chlond, University of Heidelberg, bettina.chlond@awi.uni-heidelberg.de;

“More money or better procedures? Evidence from an energy efficiency assistance program”

Marine Coinon, Toulouse School of Economics, marine.coinon@tse-fr.eu;

“The Impact of Organic Farming on Productivity and Biodiversity: Evidence from a Natural Experiment”

Vanessa Da Cruz, ETH, vcruz@ethz.ch;

“Evaluation of Climate Policy Based on Machine Learning: The Case of Switzerland”

Eva Deuchert, Akademie der Energiewirtschaft, eva.deuchert@akademie-der-energiewirtschaft.de;

“Capacity bunching in renewable energy production”

Claes Ek, University of Gothenburg, claes.ek@economics.gu.se;

“Norm-based feedback on household waste: Large-scale field experiments in two Swedish municipalities”

Michele Fioretti, Sciences Po, michele.fioretti@sciencespo.fr;

“Saving for a Dry Day: Coal, Dams, and the Energy Transition”

Ludovica Gazze, University of Warwick, ludovica.gazze@warwick.ac.uk;

“A View from the Fenceline: Evaluating Monitoring and Enforcement Policies to Reduce Oil and Gas Methane Emissions”

Andreas Gerster, University of Mannheim, gerster@uni-mannheim.de;

“Energy Tax Exemptions and Industrial Production”

Matthew C. Harding, University of California Irvine, matthew.harding@uci.edu;

TBA (KEYNOTE SPEAKER)

Christian Hoenow, University of Marburg, christian.hoenow@rwi-essen.de;

“Introducing and Terminating External Incentives: A Common-Pool Resource Field Experiment on Land Use and Forest Conservation”

Christin Hoffmann, Brandenburg University of Technology, hoffmanc@b-tu.de;

“Positive and Negative Externalities from Renewable and Conventional Power Plants in the Backyard: The Value of Participation”

Kathrin Kaestner, RWI Essen, kathrin.kaestner@rwi-essen.de;

“Carbon price acceptability with mixed revenue use and revealed preferences”

Linde Kattenberg, Maastricht University, l.kattenberg@maastrichtuniversity.nl;

“On the Economics of Residential Solar PV Subsidies: Impact on Adoption and Savings”

Andrius Kažukauskas, Vilnius University, andrius.kazukauskas@evaf.vu.lt;

“A broken Eastern promise? Realized dynamic effect of retrofits on energy consumption in Soviet-era multi-apartment buildings”

Abraham Lartey, University College London, a.lartey@ucl.ac.uk;

“International Climate Policy and Renewable Energy Consumption”

Kristin Limbach, EIFER, limbach.kristin@gmail.com;

“Coordinating farms in collective Agri-Environmental Schemes using conditional incentives”

Camille Massié, Lille Catholic University, camille.massie@univ-catholille.fr;

“Financial incentives and their impact on energy renovation behavior: evidence from the French residential sector”

Damien Mayaux, Paris School of Economics, damien.mayaux@psemail.eu;

“Promoting Green Consumption in Retail Markets Non-Price Interventions under Strategic Pricing”

Harald Mayr, University of Zurich, harald.mayr@econ.uzh.ch;

“One thing leads to another: Evidence on the scope and persistence of behavioral spillovers”

Haleema Misal, Imperial College London, h.misal18@imperial.ac.uk;

“Assessing public preferences for a wildfire mitigation policy in Crete, Greece”

Florian Anselm Münch, TU Berlin, f.muench@tu-berlin.de;

“Can local content requirements in solar auctions promote domestic innovation and production? Quasi-experimental evidence from India”

Joëlle Noailly, Geneva Graduate Institute, joelle.noailly@graduateinstitute.ch;
“Does Environmental Policy Uncertainty Hinder Investments Towards a Low-Carbon Economy?”

Alexander Pfaff, Duke University, alex.pfaff@duke.edu;
“Forest Concessions and Eco-Certifications in the Peruvian Amazon: Deforestation Impacts of Logging Rights and Logging Restrictions”

Matthias Rodemeier, Bocconi University, matthias.rodemeier@unibocconi.it;
“Information Nudges, Subsidies, and Crowding Out of Attention: Field Evidence from Energy Efficiency Investments”

Marica Valente, University of Innsbruck, marica.valente@uibk.ac.at;
“Policy evaluation of waste pricing programs using heterogeneous causal effect estimation”

Marcella Veronesi, Technical University of Denmark, mver@dtu.dk;
“Cleaning the Air? The Intended and Unintended Causal Effects of Traffic Restrictions”

Elena Villar, Università Cattolica di Milano, elena.villar@unicatt.it;
“The Intended and Unintended Consequences of Taxing Waste”

Tobias Wekhof, ETH Zurich, twekhof@ethz.ch;
“Using Narratives to Infer Preferences: An Application to the Energy Efficiency Gap”

Madeline Werthschulte, ZEW, madeline.werthschulte@zew.de;

“More than a price decrease: Field Experimental Evidence on the Mechanisms of an Energy Efficiency Subsidy”

Nina Zachlod, University of St. Gallen, nina.zachlod@unisg.ch

“Investigating Sustainability Certificates With Satellite Data”

Katarzyna Zagórska, University of Warsaw, kzagorska@uw.edu.pl;

“Does accounting for discrete-continuous choices matter? A case study of farmers’ preferences for practice- vs. result-based agri-environmental-climate measures”
